

Planter Clinic Agenda DRAFT

Planter Set-ups for High Residue Systems

UW Arlington Research Station Public Events Building (rented from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm)

10:30 to 10:45 – Registration, coffee, milk, pop, and donuts (need a sponsor)

10:45 to 11:00 – Welcome and introduction to 1) today's agenda, 2) DDF and farmer groups (slide for each farmer group), 3) farmer panel

11:00 to 12:00 – Farmer Panel with projector and screen (in auditorium, 60 min)

Each farmer has 10 minutes to share information and photos on their system including 1) crops they grow and if they have manure, 2) planter set-up, including nitrogen on the planter, and 3) photos of their fields and the residue they are planting through, including photo after a planter pass if one's available, 4) any comments about pests

- 1) Karl Sime
- 2) Jay Furseth
- 3) Tom Ripp
- 4) Jeff Endres
- 5) ?
- 6) ?

12:00 to 12:35 – Lunch (in lunch space, need a sponsor)

12:35 to 1:15 – John Gaska with projector and screen, and planter (in auditorium, 40 min)

1:15 to 1:45 – Q & A with Farmer Panel and Gaska (30 min)

1:45 to 2:00 – After-market options and information table (15 min)

- Each company has 3 (?) minutes to talk about their equipment
- Information table for non-company-based information "Ask an Expert", staffed by Tom Ripp and others (Brian Luck?), include Sugar River closing wheel kit at table
- After market vendors set-up with a row unit around auditorium, each get a table
  - Yetter
    - Tyler Thomas, tthomas@yetterco.com, 217-242-1717 (yes)
  - Martin
    - Dustin VanZuiden, 319-930-8037
  - Precision Planting
    - Tremont IL, 309-925-5050 (contacted for specific representative on 12/4)
  - Copperhead Ag
    - Jared Donahue, 605-321-1236

2:00 to ? farmers free to meet with after market vendors, staffed information table, socialize, and leave when they want to